

Mon., October 16th

Week Without Violence Conference

Featuring Speaker Mark Wynn

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND! Free!

Mark Wynn is a 22-year veteran of the Nashville Metropolitan Police Department and an international and national consultant and trainer on domestic violence and law enforcement partnerships.

The focus of the training will be on effectively responding to domestic violence when working with special populations such as the elderly, children or people with disabilities. The training will conclude with a discussion on improving community response through collaborations. Social Work CEU's will be available.

Questions? Call the YWCA at 232-4481 and ask for Kim or Carrie.

Oct. 16: Week Without Violence Conference, 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.
Lunch 12-1 pm on your own. Registration at 8:30 a.m. MWSU Blum Union, 218-219. The conference is free and open to the public.
Register: <http://ywcasj.org/news-events/event-calendar/>

Missouri Western
State University Blum
Union, Rooms 218-219

Social Work CEU's will be available.
Great for social workers, teachers and law enforcement officers. Free & open to public.

Space is limited;
reserve your spot
today!

Register online:
ywcasj.org/news-events/event-calendar/

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca

Presented by the Week Without Violence Committee with sponsorship from YWCA St. Joseph, Buchanan County Prosecutor's Office, MWSU Criminal Justice/Legal Studies/Social Work Program and MWSU Police Dept.